

Writing Winning Proposals

18 - 21 September, 2017 in Hanoi, Vietnam

Why this course?

You have an excellent project idea and now comes the challenge of gaining access to funding. Should you respond to a request for services, Call for proposals, or approach the donor organisation directly? An attractive, convincing, and honest proposal will increase your chances manifold.

For whom?

You are a manager or staff member working for a consultancy firm, an NGO, or a government institute, involved in writing project proposals or in responding to tenders for services or grants contracts.

Accreditations

Our ISO 9001 certification ensures that we apply a suite of widely recognized and professionally accepted management systems that are robust and reliable.

What will you gain?

- Understand and be able to analyse the contents of a tender dossier (request for service proposal) and guidelines for calls for proposal;
- Turn clients' needs into convincing strategy and concrete activities in line with your organisation's capabilities;
- Know how to bring needed logic and structure to your proposal;
- Apply a convincing and attractive writing style;
- Raise your confidence in proposal writing;
- Apply all tools and methods for a proposal you choose to work on during the course.

Certificate

Upon completion of the training course and subject to attendance and active participation, you will receive a certificate of completion issued by MDF Training & Consultancy.

Writing Winning Proposals

Develop convincing and attractive proposals

What will you expect?

Day 1 Understand the tender procedure. Introduction to tender and grant terminology and procedures. Discuss how to find tenders/grant opportunities.

Day 2 Analyse terms of references or guidelines. Learn how to make decision on whether to write a proposal or not. Understand the criteria to go for the project with and without partners.

Day 3 Discuss about planning: from “go” to submission. Gain insights into the contents of a proposal and how to get them organised. Learn about the steps in the writing process and tips for attractive writing. Learn how to present track record and Curricula Vitae.

Day 4 Practice writing: Just do it! Learn how to make the presentations of the contents of the proposal. Gain insights into the appraisal criteria for proposals.

“The training takes a holistic approach to proposal writing - not just the writing but the whole process is addressed.”
